

REBUILDING OUR COMMUNITY

Aligning Policy, Practice, and Resources for Lasting Impact

The Rebuilding Our Community conference is a no-cost opportunity bringing together leaders, educators, and service providers from Southeastern Mass. to address the complex systems that impact youth, families, and emerging adults. This one-day convening provides space for cross-sector dialogue, knowledge sharing, and collective problem-solving around the intersection of human services, behavioral health, education, and community resources.
